

TIMELESS FARM

Invites you to attend Monthly Hunter/Jumper Clinic Lessons at TF North in Arena, WI with USHJA Certified Instructor Stephanie Veloff-Histed (Please message for current weekend date) INCLUDES FREE "MAGNAWAVE" DEMOS

Stephanie Veloff-Histed has been riding and showing horses for over 30 years, and turned professional in 1999 when she officially opened Timeless Farm LLC in Arena, WI. Stephanie is also currently CPR Certified and a published author of "The Species Theory" copyright 2013.

Timeless Farm in Arena, WI has been hosting the successful "Timeless Farm Series" of ten horse shows per year since the first annual "Fall Cool Down" schooling show in October of 2000. Her many students have acquired countless championships and Zone year end awards at the largest venues in the Midwest from Baby Green Hunters to the High Amateur Owner Jumpers, with appearances at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show in Harrisburg and the Washington International Horse Show in D.C. During the "Ariat Jumping with the Stars" at the 2010 Midwest Horse Fair in Madison, WI, Stephanie and her "celebrity" won with perfect 10's.

In 2012, Stephanie had two students that were selected for the USHJA Emerging Athletes Program in Deerfield, WI.

Growing up, Stephanie worked with many wonderful Dressage riders and trainers, including world renowned Dressage rider, trainer, judge, and author, Charles de Kunffy, and competed to the mid-levels of Dressage and Eventing. Focusing on the Hunter/Jumper circuit as an amateur, Stephanie was Grand Champion of the entire Midwest Winter Series at Ledges Sporting Horses, Roscoe, IL, in the High Adult Amateur Jumper in 1996, and went on to win Zone 6 Champion that year as well as Zone 6 Grand Champion in 1997. In 1998, Stephanie competed in the Amateur Owner Jumper Division with much success and championships

As a professional, Stephanie competed in classes from the Level 6 Modifieds at Ledges in Roscoe, IL in 2000, to the Level 7 and 8 Open Jumpers at Lamplight in St.Charles, IL in 2001 and 2002. Also qualifying to compete at the Capital Challenge horse show in Washington D.C.

In 1997, Stephanie began breeding to Corrado USA, by the famous "C" line of Holsteiners, and currently has many offspring from green to Grand Prix level.

At present, Stephanie regularly participates in riding clinic opportunities off the farm to promote her own continuing education, including Olympic double gold medalist Joe Fargis, and former United States Equestrian Team chef d'equipe, George H. Morris. Stephanie regularly hosts USHJA affiliated riding clinics with top trainers in the industry at Timeless Farm, which includes Michael Bea of Madison, WI, Nick Novak of Minneapolis, MN, World Cup contender Greg Kuti of Ontario, Canada, and the unparalleled Nick Karazissis of Calabasis, CA. An equestrian educational benefit to herself, her students, and the community.

Planning to add the prestigious Florida Circuits to her schedule, Timeless Farm South, in Ocala, FL officially opened January 1, 2014. Stephanie is available for individual lessons and clinic sessions on her horses or yours, destination clinics, show coaching, show judging, horse transportation, and offers both TF North and TF South for Equestrian Vacation Packages.
